Trusted Advisor Collaborates With Professional Care Manager

March 2014

Susan Hurst, Care Manager

Recently Blanche, a financial planner, referred a client to our agency. Here is what she had to say about her experience, "Susan has been so competent, upbeat and positive as she has helped our client during the most difficult and confusing transition of his life. She has taken a great worry off my mind and truly improved the quality of life for our client. How fortunate we are to have her assisting both of us during this journey."

Stowell Associates provides a personcentered approach to care management in which the care managers coach, advocate, counsel, advise, navigate and problem solve with disabled or older adults regarding lifes challenges.

National Certification Ensures Quality Services

Our care managers are nationally certified and members of the National Association of Professional Geriatric Care Managers, an organization whose ethics and standards guide our practice. For additional information about the Association's ethics and standards of practice please visit
